PUBLIC SAFETY DISPATCHER

CHECKLIST

Experience has shown that many applicants for positions consider only the positive aspects of the job while ignoring some of its less attractive features. As a result, when new employees encounter negative job features, they sometimes react by leaving the job well before training is completed (sometimes in only a few weeks). Early resignations, which result from lack of accurate job knowledge, contribute to a more than desirable attrition rate among trainees.

There are many satisfying, rewarding aspects to the position. The job offers the opportunity to make significant contributions for the welfare and safety of the public and fellow employees. The work is challenging and rewarding. It is important for all applicants to carefully consider both the negative and positive features of a new career before deciding to test for the position.

The job factors listed below are features of the position about which many applicants are unaware. If any of these conditions are unacceptable to you, we strongly suggest you consider alternative employment choices that may better fit your individual needs.

Place a check on the line following the statement to indicate you have read and thought about each item.

WORKING ENVIRONMENT:

- 1. Be unable to physically leave your worksite at anytime other than two 15-minute breaks and a 30-minute lunch.
- 2. Be unable to schedule your own lunch or rest breaks.
- 3. Be unable to smoke or eat at your worksite.
- 4. Work at/in a small, confined work area.
- 5. Have limited opportunity to talk with your fellow workers during your work shift.
- 6. Work within an organization structured on a "semi-military" model, i.e.:
 - Have to wear standardized apparel.
 - Work through a highly structured "Chain of Command".
 - Attend daily briefings.
- 7. Work at a rapid pace over which you have little control.
- 8. Have to maintain intense concentration and attention for extended periods of time and then experience periods of very slow activity.
- 9. Receive a daily critique of your job performance during training, including criticism.

WORK SCHEDULE:

- 10. Be required to work any shift. Be required to work weekends on a regular basis.
- 11. Potentially have to work Christmas Day, New Years Day, and/or all holidays. Have no choice at which time you can schedule your vacation time.
- 12. Have no choice about which shift you are assigned to work. Have no choice on which days you work.
- 13. During on-the-job training, having to work the same shift, days and hours as your instructor.
- 14. Have to change work shifts (i.e., from days 7AM to 3PM, to mornings 11PM to 7AM), days off or cancel holiday plans on minimal notice.

CALL TYPES:

- 15. Answer telephone calls where the caller is rude or screams at you or is difficult, and still maintain a courteous and professional demeanor.
- 16. Answer telephone calls where the caller directs obscene language at you.
- 17. Answer and respond to calls where the caller is drunk, irrational, or confused.
- 18. Answer and respond to calls where a violent crime has occurred or is in progress
- 19. Answer and respond to calls in which the caller is difficult to understand.
- 20. Tell someone who expects police/fire service that their problem does not require police/fire unit response.

As indicated by my signature below, I state that I have read and considered each item on the checklist.
